7. Life Standards:

As a Short Term Missions Team Member, I must live a life with standards that are taught in the Word of God. The issue is not the wrongness of a thing, but doing something we personally feel is alright that could cause another believer to stumble. Some of the things below are immoral and condemned in Scripture, while others may not be greater than some other sin, but are things that cause stumbling. Paul gave us the "law of love" regarding questionable things; 1 Corinthians 8:11-13.

As a Short Term Missions Team Member, I will to be punctual and submit to the rules set forth by First Assembly of God. It is impressed upon every team member the urgency of Salvation, the Holy Spirit, the importance of study, and the necessity of self-discipline.

1. You are NOT to participate if you live with a person as if you are married to them when you are not, even if no "sin" is being committed (1 Thess. 5:22).
2. You are NOT to participate, if you have not gained victory in manifestation over smoking, drinking, narcotics of any type, immoral sexual habits, and spouse or child abuse.
3. Your dress code should be such that it is not a distraction from your ministering the Word; such as ladies wearing low cut blouses, tight fitted tops and bottoms or attire that would give too much exposure. You should be well groomed at all times including keeping a mouth/breath freshener on your person. If you are going to have a beard or mustache, it should be well trimmed at all times.
4. If it is noticed that you exhibit unstable emotional traits according to the judgment of the leaders in charge, we have the right to refuse your request to remain in the ministry.
5. Remember, to be a participant is to be involved in ministry in the Body of Christ. Therefore, you should govern your life accordingly, with a life of holiness. Participation here at First Assembly of God is a privilege not a right, subject to the approval of those in charge.
6. You should always strive for excellence; which means you are going to minister as a professional involving commitment, time, spiritual dedication, or sometimes personal inconvenience.
7. Participants are subject to suspension or dismissal, if conduct is habitually out of line with God's Word.

8. Undertaking:
